JUROR: Niki Bair

"My award winning tapestries and weavings feature bold curves, elusive text, touches of nature and multiple layers of meaning. Recently my work has evolved into combining creative writing with fiber. I now weave with both words and weft; combining fiber with my creative musings, whether it is a poem, a children's story, a mystery novel or simply a pithy phrase. I have found writing and weaving are slow mediums; but when done together - the magic of synergy stops time." a member of Designing Weavers and of California Fiber Artists she has designed, and created numerous fiber artists' portfolios including "Elemental Tapestry: Earth, Air, Fire, and Water" for Tapestry Weavers West.
